Helen D'Este Troupe.

Miss Helen D'Este and Mr. C. V. Basye, whom it will be remembered visited Alexandria for the first time last winter, and gave our people several entertaining, well selected and well rendered dramatic performances, are once more in our town, and have opened on their second visit, an entire new and chaste repertoire of all the latest plays. The company of actors with them is certainly an excellent one, and all show the best signs of good breeding and deportment, and for the last two nights, have displayed talents in their line of no mean pretensions. These very important traits and facts, should induce our people to extend the Troupe, during their short stay, the hearty and solid support all such good actors deserve, and we have no hesitancy in passing around a good word in their behalf, wishing they may reap while here a fair and paying harvest.

This afternoon a Grand Matinee will be given for ladies and children, when a grand Comedy bill will be presented. To-night, by universal request, Miss Helen D'Este will appear in her magnificent impersonation of LEAH, THE JEWEES.

—We are pleased to note that Mr. William Harris, of St. James Parish, has purchased the old Archie P. Williams homestead, the well known and large Willow Glen Plantation. Mr. Harris is already in possession, and from what we know of his well known energy and go-ahead planting qualities will soon have it in splendid fix once more. He has been the owner of the Hard Times place for several years back, and now with its "old consort" has certainly two of the finest and largest landed estates in the Parish. We are glad to welcome such men to old Rapides, once more, as William Harris, for we believe it stands in need of many such; such changes must cause her fields once more to blossom like the rose.

—JOHN McENERY, our Governor who was elected in 1872, but cheated out by the Returning Board, and the benefits of which cheat went to the usurper Kellogg, has received the good and lucrative appointment of Recorder of Mortgages in New Orleans. We are glad of it, and endorse Gov. Nicholls' good sense and sound judgment in making the appointment.

—MASS Meetings are being held all over the State, endorsing in plain Saxon, the Nicholls government. We believe this to be right and proper, for well matured and honestly directed public opinion is after all the only aristocracy we can acknowledge. Does Rapides mean much longer to slumber on the outposts of plain duty?

—JACK GOLDEN'S card plainly tells he is yet himself, and is steadily and energetically pursuing his trade. We bespeak for him plenty of work in his line, for we know he will attend to it faithfully and skillfully.

—READ James Andrews letter to Kellogg; we feel good and proud to know that one of Rapides' own true ones, has placed himself right and flat-footed on record—no discount on that!

—THE roads are in a tolerable bad condition—bad weather lately, and have not been worked on—two common inflections in Rapides.

—THE Nicholls Supreme Court, BRAINS AND HONESTY! The late Radical Court—well, peace to their carcasses!

—COME again—Thos. C. Manning, Chief Justice; Marr, Deblanc, Egan and Spencer, Associate Justices.

—Has that clerical error been corrected?

The newly elected and qualified Police Jurors of the Parish of Rapides, according to previous notice met on last Tuesday and adjourned on Friday evening. Their full and official proceedings will be found in to-day's Democrat, to which we invite the special attention of the public, and ask that they be judged according to their acts. That there exists in some respect, marked and plainly spoken disapprobation, in the removal of the old Clerk and Treasurer, is a fact which cannot be overlooked or denied, and that a constituency in this crisis of their affairs, cannot remain dumb, is also a lamentable fact. We are neither in a fault-finding mood, nor are we disposed in the least to tilt at the Police Jurors in this vested right of theirs, but are merely forced to record the expression of public opinion, which is after all master of all. This public opinion, well matured and plainly expressed, is that there was no cause whatever demanding the removal of H. M. Labat, the late efficient and competent Clerk, and J. M. Barrett, the equally efficient and competent Treasurer. We repeat the public are so outspoken in this respect, that we are thus forced to notice it. The complaint, the special complaint rests simply on the removal of such men in such times as these, and not an iota of fault or ill word to be uttered against their lucky successors, who no doubt are able to prove their fitness and competency to wear their honors easy.

The Jury, however, have, we believe, started along very well, and we know have not only the will, but the determined disposition to take well the Parochial helm in hand and guide our good bark into a safe and par port, and in this they shall certainly have our good will and staunch backing up. We are not going just now to stop and play push-pin on the road side for fun, but want the Jury to do their work well, faithfully and according to the demands of the times. As we write the Parish's script is peddling around at 50 cents on the dollar, whilst we know that her tax rolls call for at least $20,000 more than every dollar's worth of script she has afloat. This is her situation in a financial point of view, and any five men of common intelligence, knowing this, and then are not able to put her on an even keel inside of six months have no business being Police Jurors. We are frank on this score because we know what we are writing about, and we just as frankly tell the members of the Police Jury, that they must cause their taxes to be collected and paid up, and then, and then alone, can they pay what they owe, and put green backs in their Treasurer's till.

—THE duly elected Parish officers of Rapides have qualified, several days since, under commissions from Kellogg, this having been done in indecent haste to cook up the counted in District Judge. Under ordinary circumstances they should have waited for the incoming Governor, but the fiat of party intrigue willed it otherwise. Of course, Gov. Nicholls will issue commissions to all the Parish officials for they were legally and fairly elected, but we imagine when he issues a commission for District Judge, he will not fill the blank with the same name as in the Kellogg commission.

—THERE is a rumor afloat, which we hardly credit, that electricity and galvanism, fresh from the Radical Pap Factory, has infused new and fresh life into some lately defunct individuals; while on the other hand the knowing ones say it is only the dead strutting around in their graveyard habiliments. Time's never stopping pendulum will mark the piece of flesh sooner or later.—Though it looks like a cheerful funeral, we have not issued the cards.

—THE Returning Board Legislature, while it had steam up, voted away money at lightning speed rate. They even went so far as to give, rather promise, the widow Pinkston the sum of five hundred dollars.—But we rather guess the throttle valve has by this time shut down on them, and that Madame Pinkston et al. will have to dance a jig without any of the State's music.

—WE are once more in full suit, and do not think we will be forced to a half sheet in a long time to come. We are specially indebted to Colonel McGinnis, of the Excelsior Stable, and United States Mail Contractor, for our first installment of paper by his Stage Route.

—PLEASE remember and bear in mind that Nels Taylor's new Eclipse table is next door to his former one, and opposite the new Engine House.

—LATHERING it on in blarney style—turning out Barrett, and then putting it on record that he was a model Treasurer—not much reform in that!

Our home affairs in New Orleans have assumed some legal, peaceful, working shape, and since our last, we may safely assume that we are seeing the peep of that long expected, long prayed for daylight. Grant, thus far, has graciously stacked his bayonets, and we greet "hands off" as the new star which shall guide us to our old haven of safety, peace, plenty and domestic tranquility. Elsewhere we publish in full copious extracts from the New Orleans Democrat, which will give sufficient gleanings to our readers that they may be posted.

Our news is only up to Friday evening, as the mail of Saturday failed once more in these piping times of new-born peace, and as a matter of fixed uncertainty that electric institution, called a Telegraph, is down, not in working or something else, rather than a lightning and reliable instrument of news as it should be. Our items of news to be relied on, however, justify us in expressing our firm belief that as far as the Nicholls Government is concerned, it is on a safe and sound foundation, and that the Packard Government is tottering and growing weaker every hour. Already four members of its Legislature have gone over to ours, and must by this time have been followed by other defections, and must break up their hitherto small number making their quorum. In fact they have failed to have a quorum in their Senate for the past three days of last week, even counting George Kelso and some other chap, who have no more right there than our old cow. They have gone through the farce of electing the immaculate Kellogg as United States Senator for the long term so-called. When this was done there were only seventeen Senators present, being two less than a quorum. But they did it any how, and as ever with that infamous party, will make the venture with it.—The Nicholls Government have full and entire possession of the Courts, the Police Stations, the State Arsenal—in fact everything belonging to the State Government, save and except the old St. Louis Hotel, the State House of Packard and his tottering and sham Legislature, and that is now converted into a simple, barricaded, iron clad, fifth-class negro boarding house and tipling shop.

PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
NEW ORLEANS, LA.,
January 9, 1877.

TO THE PEOPLE OF LOUISIANA—
I would be most profoundly surprised and disappointed should any citizen of Louisiana, at this moment, so far forget himself as to be guilty of any excess whatsoever. There is danger in collecting together in large bodies. I urge you, therefore to retire at once peacefully to your homes.

The greater wrongs to which you have been subjected, the greater your credit should you recognize and recollect your own simple and plain duty as citizens. Let no one be injured, however obnoxious he may be, and let the people of the whole country see that we are law abiding, just and moderate.

FRANCIS T. NICHOLLS,
Governor State of Louisiana.

GEN. LONGSTREET'S TELEGRAM TO GRANT.—New Orleans, Jan. 8.—To President Grant, Washington, D. C. Gen. Nicholls was to-day inaugurated Governor of this State amid enthusiastic demonstrations of patriotism that should be gratifying to every American citizen. I believe him fairly elected to the office that he has been inducted, and that he maintain peace and good order throughout the State. I beg, therefore, that you will maturely consider the premises, notwithstanding adverse sensational dispatches that may reach you.

Most respectfully,
J. LONGSTREET.

—Mr. John Brown, of Vernon, no kin to him whose soul is still marching around, is yet holding tight grip to his seat in the Returning Board Legislature. On a recent ballot for U. S. Senator for the short term, he very complacently cast his vote for Mr. Pinchback. Go it Mr. Brown, for it won't do to give give it up so.

—THE weather continues of the all sorts kind, but veers more around to the cold and uncomfortable than ever, and with the river dead low and falling, we can see no cheering outlook ahead.

—IN Radical political life Eliza Pinkston was lovely, now that she is dead she should be divided among the faithful. Send a slice of her to Rapides just for luck.

—ALBERT LEONARD sticks fast and close to his seat in the Returning Board Legislature. He voted for Antoine, the late assistant-governor, for U. S. Senator.

—It looks like that goose has assumed its altitudinal height.

Now that Grant has declared his intention to let the Nicholls government alone as long as it can be maintained peacefully, is it not right and proper that the people of Rapides hold a Mass Meeting and declare their fixed determination to support the government of their choice. To show that we are united on this question, and that we will pay our taxes to the support alone of the lawful government of honest men, and sustain its officers at whatever cost. Our people are united, with the exception of a few who imagine that they will be able to grow fat on the spoils of some petty office. To such who would sell their birthright for a mess of pottage, let us say, that their treason will not profit them, and their cheeks will yet be made to tingle with shame in the good time to come, when the honest and patriotic people of the country will mark them as objects worthy alone of scorn and contempt. Radicalism is dead in Louisiana, and he who ties his fortunes to the corrupt and putrifying carcass, will soon be covered with vermin as foul and nauseating as that which devours the body of a dead skunk.—The damning frauds of the Returning Board cannot give life and vitality to the Packard government, and those who for one moment imagine that the Radical carpet-bag crew, with their Wells and Andersons as allies can rule over the people of Louisiana, and he who is so shortsighted as not to see it, is willfully blind.

Let us have a public expression from the people of our parish. We suggest that our Central Committee call a Mass meeting to be held in Alexandria on the 4th Saturday in this month.

What He Said.

E. J. Barrett, of Pineville, member of the Legislature from our Parish, who was fairly elected and just as fairly counted in, has thrown off the rivets of Radicalism; walked out of the Returning Board Legislature, walked into the People's House of Representatives, and told it all in these plain, candid, honest words:

Mr. Barrett, to a question of privilege arose, and referring to an editorial in the N. O. Republican, intimating that money was being used to bribe members at the St. Louis Hotel took occasion to say that he was a man of means, worth at least $20,000 at home, and there was not money enough to buy him. He had been elected by a constituency of both white and black in his parish, and had always been independent in politics. He saw here men of intelligence and owners of the property of the land, whilst at the St. Louis Hotel it was a den of thieves, whose purpose was to confiscate the property of the people. He had remained there ten days, and saw his own property being confiscated and that was why he was here to day.

—THE Toll Road old store and dwelling house were burned and entirely destroyed on Friday night.—At the time the dwelling was unoccupied, but the store was being used by John P. Grogan as a grocery.—The contents of the store were all lost, Mr. Grogan and a friend with him at the time, barely escaping from the flames. The loss of the goods, etc., is a serious one to Mr. Grogan, there being no insurance on them. The fire was most undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

—THE low ebb to which Parish script has dropped is really sad to contemplate, and is entirely attributable to more than one-half of our tax-payers who fail to pay up. It is high time that this criminal delinquency should stop, and every one be forced to pay up alike. Let our Police Jurors face this fact like business men and stop that leak at once; they have the power legally in their own hands and let the law be strictly enforced.

—IS it not a remarkable but none the less lamentable fact, that a few men here who voted for Tilden and for Nicholls, boasted of it as their shield, and now plainly show they are sorry to see them so near the seats of triumph. Something very queer in all this; but we hope pap has nothing to do with the change of base.

—COLE'S Circus came to time and gave us two performances as advertised. They had at night a rousing house, and proved to be a good, decent and talented company. Frank Gardner's riding we never saw excelled, and was well worth the price of admission.

—THE Bonnie Lee, one week out, touched the Town Wharf on Sunday, and brought up considerable eatables and plenty of whisky for our merchants. Consumers will now be happy, provided they have the money to pay for what they need.

—Keno is buoyant and 21 is drooping!

—Now that the home clouds are breaking, and that long expected daylight is seen glimmering in the Nicholls East, we hope every man of us will stand firm and true, and never for an instant think of breaking ranks. Now is the hour that old Rapides expects every man to do his duty!

—THE Jail birds of our Parish prison are surely better off in the garment and cover line than the most of us poor mortals outside, see the amount of the warrant issued for the same.

—It looks just now like the sun of Nicholls, and that the old Radicalism's orb has been packed.

—SCRE and certain when most needed—our Telegraph and our New Orleans mail.
